

Epifania Spanish Language School

Spanish Language Camp Costa Rica 2010

Minor Student Conduct Form

- A minor is any student enrolled at Epifania under the age of 18. Parents or guardians of such students must take full responsibility for such students.
- All students must conduct themselves in accordance with local laws and customs. The student must be respectful to the staff of Epifania, their chaperones, their professors, other students, and their host families.
- The staff of Epifania will explain the local laws and customs to the students along with recommendations for behavior. The student should take these recommendations seriously. Epifania is not responsible for any property stolen from a student while in Costa Rica. Each student should take every precaution to protect themselves and their property while in Costa Rica.
- Students are not allowed to go out without a chaperone or apparent from the host family.
- Students are not allowed to get any piercing or tattoos while enrolled as a student in Epifania.
- Excessive tardiness, absences and disrespectful behavior are actions for immediate dismissal from Epifania and the host family.
- Alcohol, tobacco or drug use will not be tolerated. Any student with possession of or under the influence of alcohol or drugs will be immediately dismissed from Epifania. Epifania will not be responsible for any extra expenses of the student for returning home after dismissal and no refunds will be given for the unused portion of the program not used.
- All students should carry insurance information and sufficient funds or credit card for any medical emergencies.

While I am a student at Epifania, I will abide by the laws of Costa Rica and the standards and rules of Epifania. I will be respectful to the Epifania staff and my host family at all times. I promise to tell the Epifania staff if I have any problems at Epifania or with my host family or with my health or any other emergency.

Student Name

Student Signature

Date

Parent Name

Parent Signature

Date